

By letting Hollywood add this "broadcast flag" to HDTV signals you are hurting the consumer. If they want to record their favorite programs then this should be allowed. It will do nothing to stop the tide of Internet Copyright Violations and will just harm the Industry even more. Public opinion is turning against the movie and audio companies.

I urge you to consider disallowing this as it is another example of how corporations now rule America and not the constitution.

Marcus Boyce